North Berrien Historical Society

On July 29, 1966 a group of history minded citizens from the North Berrien area created the North Berrien Historical Society. The group met twice a month at the Coloma Methodist Church and dedicated its efforts to collecting artifacts and stories about the area's heritage. Leading the effort to collect artifacts was Roger Carter, who was still living in the homestead that his ancestors lived in since 1865.

Coloma Public Library

After 24 years at the library's previous location it was recognized that expansion was inevitable. The library broke ground April 4, 2003 for a new building at the library's present site. The library was dedicated on April 25, 2004 and is a busy and vibrant place. If you haven't visited your library, now is a great time!

Paw Paw River Water Trail

The 68 mile long Paw Paw River Water Trail begins in the Village of Paw Paw in Van Buren County. There are two impoundments (Briggs Pond and Maple Lake) in the village above the dam which can be paddled. The river portion of the water trail begins immediately below the Maple Lake Dam. The Paw Paw River then winds its way 66 miles through a large, wildlife rich floodplain forest corridor through Van Buren and Berrien Counties.
